UPCOMING GDPE EVENTS

Student Meetings with GDPE Director Candidates

Candidates will be informing students of their vision for GDPE and their approach to the Director position. This is an opportunity for students to provide thoughts about the program in a less formal, more interactive setting. These meetings are for students only. Coffee and pastries provided.

Paul Ode: Wed., Jan. 29, 10 am-11 am

Ruth Hufbauer: Fri., Jan. 31, 1 pm-2 pm

Mendy Smith: Mon., Feb. 3 from 10:30 am-11:30 am

From your GDPE Admin Team

We are in the full swing of recruitment season! GDPE is currently planning our recruitment event to once again align with FRSES (Feb. 20-21). We are currently soliciting recruitment travel requests from faculty. Please submit your request here if you are interested in bringing a prospective student to campus. Requests for students to participate in the recruitment events will receive priority, but all requests will be considered.

Reminder: classes start next week. Please review last week's Digest for details on registering for certain ECOL courses. All of the past Digests are archived on our website here.

ECOLOGY & CSU EVENTS

Upcoming:

1/13-1/17 Ground Beetle ID Workshop Are you interested in working with Carabidae for your research? Or do you have vials of Carabidae, but need help with species identification? If so, check out the upcoming ground beetle identification workshop at Ohio State University! This 5-day workshop will provide a general overview of ground beetle species identification and natural history, with a focus on North American taxa. The workshop will consist of lectures and laboratory identifications, with strong emphasis placed on the use of dichotomous keys. More info

1/13 Spring 2020 Required Training for Newly Appointed Graduate Teaching Assistants (GTAs) Both those new to CSU and those returning as students but teaching for the first time. Completion of the mandatory training is required of all new GTAs and is achieved in the spring term by GTAs participating in a fully online GTA Orientation. Spring 2020 GTA Training online course will open on January 13, 2020 and must be completed by January 19, 2020. Info

Funding for SoGES Global Challenges Research Teams and Resident Fellows

Global Challenges Research Teams (GCRTs) The GCRT program provides seed funding to foster new, creative approaches to complex sustainability problems and enable initial steps towards lasting solutions. Proposals should be highly innovative and exploratory in both their research questions and approach. New this year, SoGES seeks two-year proposals that will each receive $30,000 total to enable teams to better execute planned work and articulate accomplishments. Deadline: January 31, 2020
