

GDPE Weekly Digest

April 5th, 2021

Spring has sprung, folks!

And with it comes our final invited speaker of the semester: Rachael Winfree. Rachael studies the roles of biodiversity in ecosystem services, with a focus on pollinators. This is a good reminder that our seminar series is what YOU, our readers, make of it! Please nominate speakers! It's quick and easy.

Registration for fall classes starts today. We need to stay flexible, but are hoping for courses to be offered in person. Signing up to get vaccinated will help with that! All people over 16 are now eligible. Here's a list of providers in Larimer County, and this is where to sign up for community vaccination site at The Ranch. It's not open yet, but it will be a high-throughput drive-through facility when it is.

Best,
Your GDPE Admin Team
